

MUSTEROLE—QUICK RELIEF! NO BLISTER!

It Soothes and Relieves Like a Mustard Plaster Without the Burn or Sting

Musterole is a clean, white ointment made with the oil of mustard. It does the work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster—does it better and does not blister. You do not have to bother with cloth. You simply rub it on—and usually the pain is gone!

Many doctors and nurses use Musterole and recommend it to their patients. They will gladly tell you what relief gives from sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pain and aches of the back or joints, sprain sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

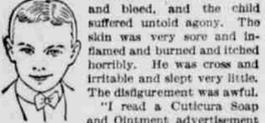

CHILD SUFFERED UNTOLD AGONY

With Rash on Arms and Limbs, Burned and Itched Horribly, Disfigurement Was Awful.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My son was affected with a rash which covered his arms and limbs and annoyed him very much. The breaking out was in blotches which would burn and bleed, and the child suffered untold agony. The skin was very sore and inflamed and burned and itched horribly. He was cross and irritable and slept very little. The disfigurement was awful."

"I read a Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertisement and sent for a free sample. I noticed an improvement so I purchased more and after using the Cuticura Soap and Ointment for three months my boy was healed."

Sample Each Free by Mail With 32-p. Skin Book on request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston, L. I., N. Y., Sept. 24, 1915."

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

James Sanborn had the thumb of his right hand cut off in the Fairbanks shops at St. Johnsbury Friday while at work on a saving machine.

At the same time Miss Helen E. Brown of Rutland received word of the death of her nephew, Frank O. Sinclair, in Burlington, she received notice of the death of a niece, Miss Winifred Brown of Chicago.

Yesterday, ground was broken by Rev. C. C. Wilson, formerly of Burlington and Bethel, for the new Church of Our Saviour at Rosindale, Mass., where he has been rector for a year and a half. The new edifice will cost $50,000.

An extensive beautifying scheme is to be carried out in Windsor next spring, when hydraulic excavators are to be set out at proper distances along both sides of State street, which leads westerly out of the village.

The American Fork and Hoe company of Wallingford has voluntarily given its employees a nine-hour schedule with ten hours' pay. The Wallingford Manufacturing company is also on a nine-hour schedule.

Charles A. Leland, Springfield's oldest business man, observed his 84th birthday anniversary Wednesday. He has been in business in the same building about 35 years, and is still active in its management.

Mrs. Elliott Miller of Pantons had a rebirth in bloom since June and on Nov. 12 picked three buds. The frost has had no protection from the buds and the last buds picked were as perfect as if put forth in summer.

Rev. Edward Cary Bass, D. D., formerly financial agent of the University of Vermont, passed his 80th birthday at his home in Providence, R. I., a few days since. Dr. Bass was graduated from the university in 1859 and received his degree in 1884.

M. J. Haggood of Peru, who had been undergoing hospital treatment for an injured leg, is improving at his home, though still under the care of a trained nurse. Against the orders of his physician, he went to the polls to vote election day, and the over-exertion seemingly was too much for him.

Henry F. Bond, an expert trapper, died Nov. 15 at his home in Westminster. He was one of the best-known trappers and hunters in that section of the state and had a wide acquaintance throughout Vermont. He shipped many pelts to New York and Boston markets each year and was regarded as an expert on their value.

After serving as organist and choir director at St. Peter's church in Vergennes since 1889, Dr. Edward Pilon has resigned, and Miss Marie Norton of that place succeeds him. During Dr. Pilon's term of service he has not missed being in his place for a single Sunday, besides officiating at countless weddings, funerals and holy days.

As Fred Charleston was having led from Rutland to his home in Orwell recently several horses, which he had purchased at the former place, they were run into by an automobile between Castleton and Hydeville, injuring the man so they had to be killed. The man who was leading the horses was on horseback. He was thrown to the ground and when he recovered himself was able to get up, the car was gone.

The unmarked grave of the first girl born in the town of Windsor is located in the Old South graveyard in that place. She was Mary Stone, daughter of Col. Nathan Stone, born April 26, 1767, and was the first female and second child born in the town. At 15 years there were not more than 10 persons in Windsor. The first male child born in the town is also buried in Windsor, Samuel, son of Capt. Steel Smith, who was born April 26, 1765.

James Partridge died at his home in Windsor Nov. 12 as a result of drinking a glass of horse medicine. His son, Allen S. Partridge, was doctoring a horse and filled a glass with some of the medicine, after which he left for the barn to administer it to the animal. It is supposed that the father, who was 83 years old, thought his son was to drink it and that he had not been included in the treat, so as soon as his son left, he took a drink, before others in the room could stop him. He died at once.

Windsor is planning to resume the annual musical festivals which were held there many years, but which were discontinued in 1913. Nelson P. Coffin, who was the choice of directors, not being able to give Windsor his services in January, when rehearsals will probably begin, it is probable that the director will be Harrison K. Moore of Claremont, N. H.

Mrs. Emma Stearns fell down the cellar.

The Spot That Hurts

Many of the most intense body pains are of local origin and can be quickly relieved and overcome by a single application of Minard's Liniment. It is best for sore, strained, lame muscles, stiff neck, lumbago, sciatica, rheumatism, aches, backache, stiff joints, neuralgia, burning, itching feet, and sprains. It gives instant healing relief; is creamy, antiseptic, free from injurious drugs and stainless to flesh and clothing. Surely try this wonderful liniment and see how quickly it brings soothing relief.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Schlarman and three children were nearly asphyxiated at their home in Hardwick Wednesday night, gas escaping from a coal stove. A daughter, who woke feeling very ill, started to go downstairs and fell the entire length, which awoke the rest of the family and perhaps saved their lives. Mr. Schlarman telephoned for a physician and before his arrival was himself unconscious. After treatment all recovered. The daughter was badly bruised from her fall.

For the third time within a few years, buildings owned by Frank Titus of West Addison were burned to the ground a few nights ago. The cause of the fire each time has been a mystery, and it is so evident that a firebug is in that vicinity that insurance companies will take no risks on property there. Hence, the loss was complete. A barn, granary, smaller stock barn and henhouse were burned, with 300 pounds of wool, hay and grain, 60 fowls, farm machinery and tools. Two sheep were gotten out, but persisted in remaining near the buildings and were burned to death. The dwelling house of Joseph Hart was saved only by hard work.

Simon B. Corliss, a New England forty-niner, died Friday at his home in Randolph, Mass., after a long illness, and 89 years. He was born in Greenboro, and as a young man moved to Quincy, Mass., where he learned the trade of granite cutter. He sailed to California by way of Cape Horn in 1849 to search for gold and returned in three years. In 1873, with his brother, he opened a granite quarry in Quincy and worked it successfully until his retirement a few years ago. He was a life member of Constellation lodge, A. F. & A. M., of Dedham, Mass., and a member of Rising Star, L. O. E., of Randolph and of the California forty-niners. His second wife, who was Mrs. Minnie Berry of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. Alma B. Wales of Randolph, and two sons, Cyrus Corliss of Dorchester and Ralph K. Corliss of Randolph, survive him.

Gave Dance on Golden Wedding Day. Mr. and Mrs. Eli Gilbar of Sunderland observed the 50th anniversary of their marriage Saturday evening by giving a dance at the home of Aida Gilbar in Sunderland to which the neighborhood was generally invited. Sunday they kept open house at their home to entertain any of their friends who were unable to attend the dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbar have passed their half century of wedded life at Sunderland, following their marriage in the adjoining town of Manchester, Nov. 19, 1866. He was born at Enosburg Falls, 74 years ago. Mrs. Gilbar, who was Mary Mathilda Busbee of East Dorset, is ten years his junior.

They have lived on a small farm on the main highway to Bennington. Of their 13 children only two have survived to be present at the golden wedding of their parents, the son, Alvin, and a daughter, Mrs. Libbie Green of Corinth, N. Y. There are 13 grandchildren, however, and a number of them were present to take part in the festivities.

Mrs. Gilbar is a veteran of the Civil war, having served over four years with Co. A of the 7th Vermont. The regiment after being mustered into the service in March, 1862, was sent to New Orleans. While it took part in only minor engagements, it endured much hardship because of the unhealthy climate and lost nearly 400 men from disease. Mr. Gilbar re-enlisted and was with the regiment at Brownsville, Tex., to patrol the border while the war department was observing the operations of Maximilian in Mexico. He was discharged in March, 1865.
